B. DO NOT INCLUDE:

- A visitor staying temporarily at your address.

C. CITIZENSHIP

While every resident is entitled to be registered, the registration authority (your city, county or city and county council(s) needs to know a person's citizenship to determine the elections at which they may vote.

The right to vote is as follows:

Presidential Election and Referendum - Irish citizens
Dáil Election - Irish citizens and British citizens
European Parliament Election - Irish citizens and EU Member State citizens
Local Elections - All citizens resident in Ireland.

D. TWO VERSIONS OF THE REGISTER

Registration authorities are required to publish two versions of the register:

- (a) the full register; and
- (b) the edited register.

The full register lists everyone who is entitled to vote and can only be used for an electoral or other statutory purpose.

EDITED REGISTER

The edited register contains the names and addresses of persons whose details can be used for a purpose other than an electoral or other statutory purpose e.g. for direct marketing use by a commercial or other organisation.

If any member of the household wants their details to be included on the edited register, you should tick the IN option box in column (V) at part 3 of the form, otherwise tick OUT. If these boxes are left blank it will be assumed to be an OUT option, i.e that person will not appear on the edited register.
